

By the Lords Justices General,
and General Governours of Ireland.

A

PROCLAMATION.

Winchester, Gallway.

WHEREAS it hath been lately represented unto Us, from some parts of this Kingdom, That the Officers and Soldiers of the Army, do Demand and take in their Quarters, besides Lodging and Candle, several things not formerly Allowed them, but Forbidden, and particularly by a Declaration Issued concerning the Pay and Quarters of the Army, by the Lord Viscount Sydney, now Earl of Romney, when Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom: Wherein it was Declared, That no person on whom any of the Officers or Soldiers of His Majesty's Army in this Kingdom were, or should be Quartered, should be obliged to find them Dyet, or any Provisions towards their Dyet, or any Pepper, Salt, or Vinegar, nor any more than Lodging and Candle, and to let them have the necessary Use of One Fire with those of the Family, and that all Officers and Soldiers should provide their own Dyet, unless the Person upon whom they are Quartered (without Threats or Menaces, or other Indirect Practices) should willingly Agree to furnish the same: And that the Chief Commanding Officer with each Regiment, Troop and Company should Cause all such persons as should Trust any of the Soldiers for their Dyet to be constantly and punctually, from time to time, paid for the same, out of their Weekly Subsistence-Money.

And We thinking fit that the like Rule be observed from time to time, for the future, by all Officers and Soldiers of His Majesties Forces in this Kingdom, Do by this Our Proclamation, Direct and Require all Colonels and Officers in Chief, Commanding any Regiments of His Majesty's Army in this Kingdom, to take particular care, that all the Officers and Soldiers under their respective Commands, do duly Observe and follow the Rules and Limitations before-mentioned, in their respective Quarters, to prevent any Just Cause of Complaint.

And to the End this Our Pleasure may be the more Publickly known, We hereby Require the Sheriffs of the several Counties, Cities, and Towns in this Kingdom, on receipt hereof, to Publish and Affix the same in the usual Places within their respective Counties and Liberties.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 24th
Day of November, 1698.

By Their Excellencies Command.

H. May

God Save the King.

DUBLIN. Printed by Andrew Crook, Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, on the 24th of November, 1698.

